

Generation Red

Terence Jeyaretnam

Just rushed off our feet
Walk, run and fly
Keep rushing to meet
Talk, deal and lie
What's in this state?
Take, try and buy
Today lets not cheat
Us, tell me why?

[chorus]

We're the generation of rats
Running our own precious race
We're the generation of rats
Running at an infectious pace
We're the generation X
Working to live, but living to work
We're the generation red
Wanting to love, but loving to want

Just a moment in time
In time we just die
An instalment in time
Time we cannot buy
Laugh at the face
May see it cry
Wonder why he cannot keep pace
We're not so kind

Just brush off the wise
Scripts, thoughts and minds
When you see the light
Hey, we are the blind
When we role the dice
Don't run and hide
We plant a seed
Of a new tide of life
